UNDERSTAND SELF | UNITE SOCIETY

CLIENT FEEDBACK

Here are valuable insights from our clients and training session participants, each testimonial speaks volumes about the positive impact our programs have on individuals and organizations, reaffirming our ongoing commitment to a future where every individual is seen, valued, welcomed, and heard.

I am really impressed by the activities and courage that increased within the group throughout the session. Trust was created for sharing and I appreciate the respect, patience, and kindness from our facilitator.

- Manager, International Automotive Supplier

I found it very engaging with many opportunities to share experiences and build comfortability and community within the group. The facilitator also was great at answering questions with relevant examples.

- HR Generalist, New York

I came in feeling like I had no biases – and was caught off guard when I realized that I do. Our facilitator did this in a way that didn't make me feel bad. Genius!

-Teacher, Florida

Working in small groups - discussing real-life crucial conversations and the strategies we can use to improve them - was a fabulous experience. I felt both helpful and helped after each breakout room. It's no exaggeration for me to say that I left our session feeling inspired and energized. If you had told me beforehand that I would feel that way after four hours of virtual training, I would have laughed in your face (a disrespectful and defensive reaction). I usually HATE "hybrid" work. Y'all do it right. I can't wait for more!

- Educational Leader, Chicago

Even as a person who understands the impact of my words on people, this training showed me places where I hold privilege that I didn't realize, and places where I am guilty of microinsults and microaggressions that I had never considered as such.

-Attorney, Michigan

Getting honest feedback regarding my overall progress through all of the modules as well as personalized advice and action steps for self-improvement and professional development was absolutely amazing. I've never received such specific, practical, and friendly advice from anyone anywhere in my life.

-DEI Practitioner, Chicago
